

ACN Guest Blogging Guidelines

Interested in being an ACN blogger? ACN accepts articles on topics of interest to nonprofit organizations.

Successful guest contributions are comprehensive posts that offer nonprofits knowledge, inspiration or insight as related to developing or growing their organization.

Please see guidelines below and submit your post accordingly. Posts will be reviewed by the ACN Blog Coordinator before scheduling.

General post guidelines:

- 250-500 words suggested
- Proper attribution of any data, quotations or outside content
- No more than one link to your company's website in the body of the post (must be relevant to the post subject and not solely promotional)

How to submit your post:

Please email ACN Blog Coordinator Kelli Moore at kmoore@andoadvisors.com the following:

- Your full post as a Word Doc or link to an existing post
- Short author bio (50 words max.)

Thank you for contributing to the ACN Blog!
